Will you suffer with dyspepsia and liver complaint? Shiloh's Vitalizer is guaranteed to cure you.

For sale cheap, to close them out, several pianos and organs. Also several horses and buggies. K. C. Eldridge, Singer Office. j15

ICE.—Doc Benton is now offering a very superior quality of ice for sale, delivered to any part of the city. It is the best ice harvested for years in this section. r8

Nevada raised stock when properly cared for beats the California production in flavor and quality. Gardner takes care of his own herd, and all meat coming from his market is bound to be tender and sweet. s18tf

Meat immediately after being slaughtered is never tender and should be kept a day or two. In order to have it fresh after the expired time it should be kept in a cool place. M. C. Gardner sells meat both tender and fresh, as it is always surrounded by ice at a freezing temperature. s13tf

Call on Dr. Calhoun the new dentist at his dental parlors next door to the Ormsby House. The Doctor has come to be one of us and expects to do nothing but first-class work. a2ml

HOW CAN PARENTS—Allow their children to cough and calmly say: "Oh! its only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by using BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedie, Druggist

COUGH! AND COUGH! AND COUGH!—What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

Shiloh's Vitalizer is what you want for Constipation, Loss in Appetite, Dizziness, and all symptoms of Dyspepsia. Price 10 and 75 cents per bottle.

ALL SORTS.

Bosco, the magician, gave away a lot of splendid presents last night.

The press is the watch-dog that guards the hen house of our liberties and protects the clothes-line of our rights.—Jim Townsend.

SACRAMENTO Bee: The Democrats of the State of Nevada seem to be sick of their long, windy platform. It is not published in any paper in the State.

Frank Folsom announces himself as a candidate for the Legislature this morning. Mr. Folsom is a square Republican and a good party worker. He will make a strong run if nominated and a good member of the Lower House.

The Reno Journal thus records a very deserving act: Allen C. Bragg, who was tendered $300 by the Board of Trade for services as Secretary of that institution during the year, has declined to receive the amount, as he thinks the Board of Trade has more use for the money in prosecuting its good work than himself.

Bosco at the Opera House.

Signor Bosco, the great wizard and journalist, gave his first entertainment at the Opera House in the presence of a good audience, who were not at all backward in showing their appreciation of the conjurer's efforts to please. He candidly tells his audience that his tricks are tricks; that there is nothing supernatural about them. Yet it is astonishing how a man can stand before a thousand pair of eyes and deceive them as Signor Bosco does.

At the close of the entertainment a great number of costly and elegant presents were given away. Tonight the principal presents will be a $35 gold watch and lady's silk dress pattern, with a great number of others. He also promises to give the prettiest little girl in the Opera House this evening (under 14 years of age) an elegant present.

Let everybody turn out to the popular-priced show, have a laugh and perhaps carry home a present.

BORN.

FOLSOM.—In this city, October 6, 1890, to the wife of Frank Folsom, a son.

The boy weighed 11 pounds, and Frank's only regret is that the youngster can't cast a vote for his daddy. You can't tell whether he is treating on his candidacy or his boy, or both.

Funeral of Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. Miller an aged colored lady who died last Saturday at her residence on the Prison road, was buried yesterday.

Nearly all of the colored population showed their respects by attending the funeral and there were twenty carriages in line.

COFFIN DRAWS OUT.

And Leaves Tom Riekey a clear Fied.

It was generally expected yesterday that there would be a very hot fight between Tremmer Coffin and Tom Riekey for the State Senatorship.

About two o'clock yesterday Mr. Coffin reached the conclusion that he was "not in" and announced his withdrawal and left Riekey the possessor of the field.

The APPEAL believes that Mr. Coffin did a wise thing in not submitting his name to the people at the primaries, as the opposition to his candidacy was very determined and bitter.

While it was generally conceded that his experience in public and political matters would render him a very efficient representative, it was also a matter of general comment that he had already received a sufficient share of party honors to repay him for his past party services, services which the APPEAL has no disposition to depreciate.

He has served two terms in the legislature, been once Speaker of the House, a Regent of the University, U. S. District Attorney and County Treasurer by appointment of the Board of County Commissioners.

The centering of so many offices on one man—when many other party workers have had none—has been the ground work of the opposition against him.

At the present time he can retire from office-holding with grace and credit.

The Coming Circus.

McMahon's New United Shows. This much heralded combination will be at Carson City on Wednesday, October 8. The excellent character of entertainment always given by the above show recommends it to the lovers of sawdust novelties. The small boy and the larger man needs a circus occasionally in his business and we can suggest no better antidote for the craving than a visit to the above show. That this is among the few legitimate arenic exhibitions traveling cannot be denied, and now with its allied attractions must arouse a desire on the part of many who are not in the habit of attending shows to see its many wonders. We are assured by those who ought to know that there is much of unusual interest to the spectator. Every man, woman and child in a radius of many miles will want to see the performance given by the largest elephants in the world.

Agreement.

CARSON CITY, October 3, 1890.

We the undersigned Republican candidates for the various county offices of Ormsby county Nevada, hereby pledge ourselves not to get up, encourage or assist in getting up or making any combination ticket or tickets for use, or to be voted for at the primary election to be held Tuesday, October 7, 1890, and we hereby further pledge ourselves to do our utmost to defeat any candidate or candidates who violates this pledge and further we hereby pledge ourselves to use only the form of ticket adopted by this meeting.

(The above is signed by the various candidates seeking the Republican nomination for county officers.—EDITOR)

Notice to Voters.

Voters at the primary election to be held today will be required to subscribe and swear to the following affidavit before voting.

I depose and swear that I am a citizen and a voter of Carson Precinct, Ormsby County Nevada and that I possess all the statutory qualifications of a voter in said precinct at the General Election to be held on the 4th day of November 1890. I further depose and swear that I am a Republican and that I will support the Republican State and the Ormsby County Republican Tickets at the General Election to be held on the 4th day of November 1890.

A MURDEROUS INDIAN.

He Kills a Whole Family—Speedy Retribution.

An Indian from Smoky Valley, the other side of Austin, called Abe Minium, after the well-known robust rancher of that locality, created a very murderous sensation in Nye county, about twenty miles from Grantsville, a couple of weeks ago, according to a letter from Thomas Mitchell of Grantsville to the Sheriff of Nye county. At a camp called Pine-not he had fallen desperately in love with a young squaw and wanted to marry her. Being repeatedly refused, he threatened to kill her and the whole family, which he proceeded to do, shooting them with his Henry rifle one after another, father, mother, the young squaw and a younger sister. The other Indians living near took to the hills in terror, leaving the murderer master of the situation, sending word to Grantsville, of the tragedy. Next day Abe Minium stole a horse and left. He was followed, however, and subsequently shot near Lone by another Indian name Sam, tumbling from his saddle, dead. The other Indians presented Abe's Henry rifle to Sam as a reward for his good deed.

WHAT ON EARTH—Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing.—W.
